Description of Event: The Native American Student Coalition at UC Merced is hosting travel events for club members and interested students to attend Pow Wows at Fresno State University, UC Davis, and Roseville, as well as an annual retreat at Sequoia National Park. This is to support efforts to network with other campus Native American clubs, organizations, and initiatives, and gain a great amount of connections within the Central Valley. Travel experiences may attract students to attend and help club recruitment, and the travel events are open to all students.
