Event Title: Region 6 Fall Regional Conference - Denver CO
Event Location: Westin Denver Downtown
Description of Event:

The National Society of Black Engineers (NSBE) is an organization whose focus is "to increase the number of culturally responsible black engineers who excel academically, succeed professionally and positively impact the community." This is not limited to just African or African-American students or those that are just Engineering Majors. The organization is open to all students of different ethnic, economic, and social backgrounds as seen in membership.

The purpose of the Fall Regional Conference is to expand on the strengths of our organization. The conference provides the attendees with the experience to boost their abilities to be leaders at their campus. Alumni of our organization have received employment opportunities along with graduate school offers from attending this conference.
