Description of Event:

The event will be full of not only Vietnamese culture but other unique cultures as well. We plan on including other cultural clubs as well that also want to show their community to our school. Many of our members will be wearing an áo dài which is commonly known as a traditional Vietnamese dress that is mostly worn by women but can also be worn by men too. Our show will consist of many traditional values of what it means to be Vietnamese and hopefully show our audience what it is like living in our culture. Our members want to grow our Vietnamese community and show people how unique our culture can be. Full of dances, dialogue, skits, and fun, we hope to prove at the culture show that our members are representing our club to the fullest potential.

Are You Bringing in a Speaker: Yes

Description of Speaker (Optional): The guest speaker Richie Le, is a Vietnamese-American that brings Vietnamese values into today's culture. He advocates Vietnamese-American ideals into the real world. With the help of his youtube channel, he gives viewers an idea on what happens in the life of a Vietnamese-American and how even though our culture is a little different, he is just like any other person living in America. He is a man of traditional value while also putting his own twist into his words. One of his notable works is "The Pho Song." Pho is one of Vietnam's most famous dishes which if an individual is from Vietnamese descent, they are highly likely to eat the dish multiple times in their lives. His song not only represents Vietnamese culture, but also today's community as a whole.
